

LUCY JANE MILLER, PH.D., OTR

ASSOCIATE CLINICAL PROFESSOR OF REHABILITATION MEDICINE & PEDIATRICS

I. PROFESSIONAL HISTORY

- 2005-Pres: Academic Position: Associate Clinical Professor, Departments of Rehabilitation Medicine and Pediatrics, University of Colorado Denver, Denver, CO
- 2006-Pres: Academic Position: Professor, Rocky Mountain University of Health Professions, Doctoral Programs in Pediatrics, Provo, UT
- 2005-Pres: Clinical Position: Director, Sensory Therapies And Research Center (STAR Center), Greenwood Village, CO
- 1979-Pres: Director Position: Executive Director, Foundation for Knowledge In Development, (KID Foundation) Greenwood Village, CO (presently DBA Sensory Processing Disorder Foundation: SPD Foundation)
- 1994-2005: Academic Position: Associate Professor, Departments of Rehabilitation Medicine and Pediatrics, University of Colorado Denver, Denver, CO
- 1994-2005: Clinical Position: Director of Sensory Processing Treatment And Research Center (STAR Center), The Children's Hospital, Denver, CO
- 1979-2005: Director Position: Founder and Executive Director of the KID Foundation (Foundation for Knowledge In Development), Littleton, CO

II. EDUCATIONAL HISTORY AND GRADUATE TRAINING

- 2007 Certificate of Reliability in the use of the Sensory Integration Fidelity Measure, Spiral Foundation at OTA Watertown, MA
- 2002: Certificate of Completion from the Mayo School of Continuing Medical Education in Psychiatric Genomics: Applications for Clinical Practice
- 2002: Certificate of Completion from the American Occupational Therapy Association, Inc. in An Occupational Performance Measurement Model for Use With Older Adults
- 1999: Certificates from University of Michigan School of Public Health, Graduate Summer Session in Epidemiology: Design and Conduct of Clinical Trials, Analysis of Clinical Trials, Introduction to the Logistic Model, and Introduction to Systematic Reviews and Meta-analysis
- 1999: Certificate from University of Michigan at the Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research Summer Program: Categorical Data Analysis: Introduction to Regression Models
- 1986: Ph.D. Early Childhood Special Education, University of Denver (Educational Research Specialty)
- 1976-1978: Intensive two year Traineeship affiliated with the Psychoanalytic Institute of Boston with Joanne Fineman, M.D., and Judith Singer, Ph.D., Boston, MA
- 1974: M.S. Occupational Therapy, Boston University (Neurology Specialty)
- 1973: June-Sept. Intensive Traineeship in Sensory Integration Dysfunction with Dr. A. Jean Ayres; Torrance, CA
- 1972: B.S. Psychology, Lewis and Clark College (Oregon)

III. BOARD CERTIFICATIONS

American Occupational Therapy Association: #274878: OTR Certification

IV. OTHER ACADEMIC UNIVERSITY APPOINTMENTS

- 1999-Pres: Associate Research Professor, Department of Psychology, University of Denver, Denver, CO
- 1997-2005: Member, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center Graduate Faculty, Denver, CO

LUCY JANE MILLER, PH.D., OTR

ASSOCIATE CLINICAL PROFESSOR OF REHABILITATION MEDICINE & PEDIATRICS

- 1991-1993: Assistant Professor, Department of Occupational Therapy, Washington University, School of Medicine, St. Louis, MO (25% time)
- 1991-Pres: Adjunct Faculty Member, Texas Women's University, Denton, TX.
- 1990-Pres: Adjunct Faculty Member, Department of Occupational Therapy, Colorado State University
- 1989-Pres: Adjunct Faculty Member, Department of Occupational Therapy, Boston University
- 1988-1991: Research Fellow, University of Illinois at Chicago, Center for Research in Measurement

V. PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

- 2005-Pres: Founded and Directs the Sensory Therapies And Research Center (STAR Center), in the Denver Technological Center, Greenwood Village, CO.
- Designed and implemented a 8000 square foot facility to conduct intervention using occupational therapy, listening therapy and psychotherapy
  - Hired and supervises occupational therapists, psychologists, administrative staff and others
  - Coordinates services to clients
- 2005-Pres: Research Director, SPD Foundation
- Coordinates research program for Foundation
  - Directs advocacy program effort to get Sensory Processing Disorder into Diagnostic Classification Schemes (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual – DSM-V and others)
  - Supervises staff including neuroscientist, statistician, senior occupational therapy researcher and research assistants
  - Coordinates grant submissions
  - Coordinates publication efforts
- 1999-2005: Founded and Directed the Sensory Processing Treatment And Research Center at The Children's Hospital (Imhoff Pavilion)
- Principal Investigator in Sensory Modulation Dysfunction research
  - Responsible for all day-to-day operations including staff supervision
  - Management of projects in timely and efficient manner
  - Conceptual responsibility for research questions and research methods
  - Overall responsibility for interpretation and dissemination of results
  - Overall responsibility for education and training of students
  - Overall responsibility for quality of clinical care
  - Overall responsibility for submitting grant funding to continue the program
- 1996-1999: UCSHC, JFK Partners. Co-authored and obtained Project ENRICH U.S. Department of Education Model Demonstration Project
- Developed and implemented a replicable model of providing OT, PT, ST, and education services to infants and toddlers with low-incidence disabilities in natural settings. Project Director 1996-1997; 1998-1999 Direct Clinical Occupational Therapy Services (part-time)
  - Provided services to over 50 families
  - Responsible for overall training program including more than 50 students representing diverse multi-disciplinary backgrounds
- 1994-1996: UCHSC, JFK Partners. Team Leader for Infant Toddler Assessment Team at JFK Partners, UCHSC
- Provided for overall multi-disciplinary assessment services to over 100 children
  - Overall responsibility for training students (more than 50 students trained)
  - Responsible for bringing team from operating in red to black
- 1983-1993: Co-Founder and Practicing Occupational Therapist, Neuro-Developmental Center (CO)

LUCY JANE MILLER, PH.D., OTR

ASSOCIATE CLINICAL PROFESSOR OF REHABILITATION MEDICINE & PEDIATRICS

- 1978-2005: Executive Director, Foundation for Knowledge In Development (KID Foundation), Littleton, CO
- Responsible for day-to-day operations, including staff supervision, budget development and monitoring, and programmatic decisions
  - In charge of long-term planning, vision, and scope of work for the Foundation
  - Conceptual responsibility for Research and Development of all projects
  - Measurement responsibilities, including design and implementation of pilot scales, Research and Standardization Editions of scales, and analysis of psychometric properties of tests
  - Responsible for obtaining funding to promote future activities in coordination with The Children's Hospital of Denver and the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center
- 1976-1978: Early Childhood Program Director, Dorchester Mental Health Center (MA)
- 1974-1976: Senior Occupational Therapist, Lindemann Mental Health Center (MA)
- 1973-1974: Staff Occupational Therapist, United Cerebral Palsy – Kinderschool (MA)

VI. AWARDS, HONORS AND SPECIAL RECOGNITION

- 2007 Outstanding Medical Professional: Bauman Ladders Program, Harvard University, Boston, MA
- 2005: Spiraling Toward Excellence Annual Award for Excellence as a Researcher, Mentor and Leader in Occupational Therapy: Spiral Foundation, Watertown, MA
- 2005: Martin Luther King Humanitarian Award, State of Colorado, Division of Civil Rights
- 2004: Marjorie Ball Award of Merit: Occupational Therapy Association of Colorado (highest award in the state association)
- 2004: Award of Merit: American Occupational Therapy Association (highest award in the national association)
- 2004: Fellow of the American Occupational Therapy Association
- 2001: Bridges to the Future: Pediatric Therapy Network Annual Outstanding Research Award
- 1999: Occupational Therapy Outstanding Alumni Award: Boston University Sargent College of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences
- 1994: Nominated for President Clinton's National Education Standards and Improvement Council
- 1994: Award of Merit (Third Place) International Technical Publications Competition: Society for Technical Communication for FirstSTEP Examiner's Manual
- 1994: Distinguished Technical Communication (First Place). Regional Technical Publications Competition, Society for Technical Communications for FirstSTEP Examiner's Manual
- 1993: Special Recognitions Award: Boston University Alumni Association
- 1992: A. Jean Ayres Research Award: American Occupational Therapy Foundation
- 1990: Cordelia Myers Writers Award: American Occupational Therapy Association
- 1988: Charter Member (one of first ten members), Academy of Research: American Occupational Therapy Foundation

VII. CONTRIBUTIONS TO DIAGNOSTIC CLASSIFICATION SYSTEMS

The Interdisciplinary Council on Developmental and Learning Disorders (ICDL).

- 2005 Miller, L.J., Lane, S., Cermak, S., Osten, E., & Anzalone, M. (2005). Section I - Primary diagnosis: Axis I: Regulatory-Sensory Processing Disorders. In S.I. Greenspan & S. Wieder (Eds.), Diagnostic manual for infancy and early childhood: Mental health, developmental, regulatory-sensory processing and language disorders and learning challenges (ICDL-DMIC) (pp. 73-112). Bethesda, MD: Interdisciplinary Council on Developmental and Learning Disorders (ICDL).
- 2005 Miller, L.J., Lane, S.J., Cermak, S., Anzalone, M., Osten, E., & Greenspan, S. (2005). Appendix III: Guide for observations during clinical evaluation of Regulatory-Sensory Processing Disorders: Version 1.0. In S.I. Greenspan & S. Wieder (Eds.), Diagnostic manual for infancy and early childhood: Mental health, developmental, regulatory-sensory processing and language disorders and learning challenges (ICDL-DMIC) (pp. 289-327). Bethesda, MD: Interdisciplinary Council on Developmental and Learning Disorders (ICDL).

The Diagnostic Classification: Zero To Three (DC:0-3R)

- 2005 Consultant to DC: 0-3 Revised. Resulted in Regulatory Disorder of Sensory Processing being included in Diagnostic classification of mental health and developmental disorders of infancy and early childhood: Revised edition (DC:0-3R). (2005) Washington, DC: ZERO TO THREE Press.

Consensus Building within the Profession of Occupational Therapy

- 2000 Miller, L.J. & Lane, S.J. (2000). Toward a consensus in terminology in sensory integration theory and practice: Part 1: Taxonomy of neurophysiologic processes. Sensory Integration Special Interest Section Quarterly, 23(1), 1-4.

VIII. MEMBERSHIP IN PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES

- 1972-pres American Occupational Therapy Association and Occupational Therapy Association of CO
- 1998- pres Society for Psychophysiological Research
- 1998-pres: Pediatric Therapy Network Charter Member, Research Advisory Council
- 1991-1993: Arapahoe County Early Childhood Network Executive Committee, IDEA
- 1988-1995: Member, Developmental Disability Prevention Advisory Board, Colorado Department of Health
- 1987-1995: Colorado Interagency Coordinating Council (for IDEA) Appointee. Member of following committees: Child Identification and Assessment; Evaluation Committee; Executive Committee; Finance Committee
- 1990-1994: Colorado Interagency Coordinating Council (for IDEA) Executive Committee

LUCY JANE MILLER, PH.D., OTR

ASSOCIATE CLINICAL PROFESSOR OF REHABILITATION MEDICINE & PEDIATRICS

1979- Pres: Foundation for Knowledge In Development (Board of Directors)

1978-Pres: Sensory Integration International Faculty Emeritus

1978-1979: Developmental Disabilities Special Interest Section Chairperson, American Occupational Therapy Association

1975-1978: Boston Center for Blind Children Board Member

IX. INSTITUTIONAL COMMITTEES

2005-2006: Chair of the Biennial Developmental Psychobiology Research Group meeting, "The Sensory Dimension in Neurodevelopmental Disorders" Estes Park, CO.

1997-2005: Pediatric Clinical Research Center Scientific Advisory Committee, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center

1994-Pres: Developmental Psychobiology Research Group, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, Departments of Psychiatry and Pediatrics

1989-2000: Developmental Disabilities Research Group, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center, Departments of Pediatrics and Psychiatry

X. REVIEWS AND REFEREE WORK

A. Grant Reviewer

2002: National Institute of Health, NICHD: National Center for Medical and Rehabilitation Research. Medical Research Subcommittee (CHHD-K)

2002: National Institute of Health, NICHD: National Center for Medical and Rehabilitation Research. Medical Research Subcommittee (BBBP-6)

2000: National Institute of Health, NICHD: National Center for Medical and Rehabilitation Research. Ad Hoc Study Section to review Program Project Awards

1991-Pres: U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Projects

1988-Pres: Colorado State Department of Education (P.L. 99-457)

1986-Pres: American Occupational Therapy Foundation

B. Journal Reviewer

1992-Pres: Guest Reviewer, Topics in Early Childhood Special Education

1988-Pres: Guest Editor, Physical & Occupational Therapy in Pediatrics

1986-Pres: Guest Reviewer, Perceptual and Motor Skills

1986-Pres: Guest Reviewer, American Journal of Occupational Therapy

1984-1989: Editorial Review Board, Physical & Occupational Therapy in Pediatrics

XI. CONSENSUS MEETINGS/STATEMENTS

2006: Sensory Processing Disorder Scientific Work Group, Planning Retreat 4, Cape May, NJ

LUCY JANE MILLER, PH.D., OTR

ASSOCIATE CLINICAL PROFESSOR OF REHABILITATION MEDICINE & PEDIATRICS

- 2005: Sensory Processing Disorder Scientific Work Group, Planning Retreat 3, Bethesda, MD
- 2005: Alpha Multi-site Research Group Planning Meeting: Silverthorne, CO
- 2004: Alpha National Multi-site Effectiveness of OT Planning Meeting, Cape May, NJ
- 2004: Sensory Processing Disorder Scientific Work Group: Planning Retreat-2, Boulder, CO
- 2003: Alpha Group Multi-Site Outcomes Study Planning Group, Nantucket, MA
- 2002: Sensory Processing Disorder Scientific Work Group: Planning Retreat-1, Evergreen, CO
- 2002: Alpha Group Multi-Site Outcomes Study Planning Group Boston, MA
- 2002: Alpha Group Multi-Site Outcomes Study Planning Group Miami, FL.
- 2002: Alpha Group Multi-Site Outcomes Study Planning Group, Los Angeles, CA

XIII. MAJOR SCIENTIFIC INTERESTS

- A. Sensory Processing Disorder. Research questions include:
- 1) Is Sensory Processing Disorder a valid syndrome or syndromes?
  - 2) What types, duration and frequency of treatment(s) is effective in remediating symptoms of Sensory Processing Disorder?
  - 3) What underlying neurological, physiological and biochemical mechanisms are disordered in Sensory Processing Disorder?
  - 4) What are the etiologies and prevalence of Sensory Processing Disorder?

XVI. EDUCATION AND TRAINING ACTIVITIES

Intensive education and training activities include:

Over one hundred twenty 2 and 3 day Seminars in the U.S. and internationally on subjects related to assessment and intervention programs with young children.

Mentorship of over 100 students through JFK Partners at UCSHC. These students come from diverse professional backgrounds including: Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, Speech/Language Pathology, Special Education, Nursing, Nutrition and Psychology. These students include undergraduate, graduate, doctoral and post-doctoral level students.

Training of Residents at UCSHC: ½ day per month 1 to 1 mentorship to explain occupational and physical therapy and when appropriate referrals might be indicated for physicians.

XVII. CLINICAL CARE ACTIVITIES

LUCY JANE MILLER, PH.D., OTR

ASSOCIATE CLINICAL PROFESSOR OF REHABILITATION MEDICINE & PEDIATRICS

While at the University of CO Health Sciences Center, I was instrumental in the development and implementation of three innovative clinical programs since beginning with the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center in 1994. First, the Infant/Toddler Assessment Team at JFK Partners; second the federally funded demonstration project, Project ENRICH (Enrichment using Natural Resources In the Community and Home), and third the STAR Center (Sensory Processing Treatment And Research) at The Children's Hospital of Denver, CO.

I was appointed head of the Infant / Toddler Team at JFK Partners in 1994 by Dr. Cordelia Robinson, director of JFK Partners, and maintained that position until I developed a funded grant position in 1996. During my tenure we turned this center, which had been operating in the red, to one operating in the black. We served over 100 families during my time as head of the team. We focused on family-centered care components of treatment and added a full-time parent advocate to the team. We also forged numerous community connections with local IDEA councils (Individuals with Disabilities Education Acts), which have been maintained to this day.

Next, with Dr. Robinson, I co-authored Project ENRICH, a federally funded model demonstration project (Department of Education). When the project was funded, I moved to full-time Project Director bringing the vision of the project as written to an implemented reality (1996-1998). This project involved the collaboration of a team of occupational, physical, speech/language, nutrition, special education and nursing specialists. We developed a model to offer traditional therapy services to children with low-incidence severe/profound handicapping conditions within the context of natural settings. Integral to this work was establishing and maintaining a team of highly qualified professionals from diverse backgrounds who could collaborate smoothly and efficiently while ensuring family-directed service provision in natural settings. I remained with the team until I received full-time funding for the program of research that I currently direct.

At that time I transferred to a clinical position as occupational therapist on the team, while continuing to help the new Project Director take over in the director's position (1998-1999). Project ENRICH has continued to be funded through duplication (Phase II) and outreach (Phase III), and is currently in its ninth year of continuous funding at the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center. Approximately 100 families were served during my tenure as director of Project ENRICH and dozens of students representing multi-disciplinary backgrounds were trained in the transdisciplinary model of assessment and treatment in natural settings.

When full-time funding was received, I founded and directed the STAR (Sensory Processing Treatment And Research) Center at The Children's Hospital (TCH) of Denver, CO (1999–2005). This center provided the only full-time program of research in Sensory Processing Disorder in the United States. In this TCH Center, an ongoing program of research is combined with state-of-the-art clinical care for children with sensory processing disorder and accompanying co-morbid diagnoses. Over 600 children and families have partaken in intervention at the STAR Center. Our research includes investigating the effectiveness of occupational therapy with children who have this disorder and evaluations of the underlying neurophysiologic mechanisms of the disorder. I directly supervised the staff at the STAR Center's and developed a multi-disciplinary team to undertake clinical activities (pediatrician, neuropsychologist, speech/language pathologist, special educator and seven occupational therapists). In addition, I personally interviewed all families who participate in the treatment studies, and supervise the clinical occupational therapists from The Children's Hospital who provide treatment to the children on a twice weekly basis. I left this position September 30, 2005.

Currently, I direct the Sensory Processing Treatment and Research Center in Denver, CO where children birth – eighteen and adults receive a combination of Occupational Therapy and Listening Therapy. The center is a multidisciplinary multi-modal intervention practice with 18 personnel, providing family-centered, individualized treatment for people with sensory processing disorder, ADHD, and other developmental and behavioral disorders.
